

- 1 Mushrooms on roots
- 2 Defect in base of trunk
- 3 Painters Fungus on Bay tree
- 4 Ivy - especially on Douglas fir
- 5 Conk Fungus on Douglas fir
- 6 Split tree trunk
- 7 Insect nest
- 8 Split branch
- 9 Bay tree tips dying back
- 10 Split top conifer trees
- 11 Branches touching roof
- 12 Branches near chimney
- 13 Dead or re-grown Redwood top
- 14 Broken hanging branch
- 15 Dead limb with fungus
- 16 Canker on Pine tree
- 17 Pitch tubes on Pine tree
- 18 Soil mound from uprooting
- 19 Fallen bark from tree
- 20 Sprouts from latent buds
- 21 Narrow branching
- 22 Previous large pruning cut
- 23 Wood dust or borer droppings
- 24 Black boils from SOD
- 25 Improper planting location

Take a careful look around your property to evaluate the health of your trees. This guide will help you indentify potential problem areas that need attention.